Cisco: Markings in the routing table

Code	Meaning
L	Local - IP address directly assigned to the router interface.
C	Connected - Network directly connected to the router interface.
S	Static - Static route manually configured by the administrator.
R	RIP - Route learned using the RIP protocol.
D	EIGRP - Route learned using the EIGRP protocol.
O	OSPF - A route learned using the OSPF protocol.
B	BGP - Route learned using the BGP protocol.
i	IS-IS - Route learned using the IS-IS protocol.
E	EGP - Route learned using the EGP protocol.
U	Per-user static route - A static route assigned to a user.
o	ODR - Route learned using On-Demand Routing.